

United Ajyal Majan unveils new real estate brand Wujha

Saturday 13th, August 2016 / 19:52 Written by Oman Observer in Business

MUSCAT: Celebrating the blessedness of the Forty-six National Day of the Sultanate and with our beloved country is witnessing a prospering growth in all sectors of life; United Ajyal Majan LLC has launched (a new brand in the domain of the real estate development in a modern way in order to get along with the requirements of this era, where this launching came in the name of) Wujha for Real Estate Development (which sells units of luxurious apartments and shops, the CEO of the company Hazza'a bin Salem Almaridouf Alsa'adi on this launching gave the following declaration:

We are glad today to launch our new marketing brand reflecting the phase of the real estate development that Oman is witnessing. Our vision translates our commitment to deliver residential and commercial projects to be destinations for a better life taking into our consideration offering premium residential apartments with high quality standards to achieve the highest levels of our customers' satisfaction which will make the process of the acquisition much easier via banking financing or internally through the company. Wujha enjoys an excellent record track of various projects starting with Bait Mohra Project at Amerat then Dar Alqamar at Mwalih South and Lubana at Southren Mu'baleyah (The Company will launch also at the beginning of August 2016 Allrfan Pear Project located at Ghala Heights away 10 minutes from the International Muscat Airport in addition to several many residential projects while its execution will extend to June 2017.

Wujha thrives to satisfy the customers' needs through its website www.wujha.com and its free number 80033666 to ensure answering any of their inquires. We hope that Allah will effect reconciliation upon us to achieve all of our ambitions and aspiring in the real estate development domain participating in serving the Sultanate of Oman dedicatedly side by side in favour of our honourable country.